

Greening Your Yard, Naturally

Safe lawns

Native landscapes

Edible gardens

Tuesday, March 24 6:30-9pm

First Church of Christ 190 Court Street Middletown

Presentations on: Growing an Organic and Healthy Lawn; Alternatives to Lawns & Landscaping with Native Plants; Starting a Vegetable Garden; and Using Edibles in Your Landscape.

Browse information tables 6:30-7:00 and 8:30-9:00, Expert panel presentation and Q&A 7:00-8:30.

Panel of Experts: Susan Holland, Natureworks; BettyLou Sandy, CT-NOFA (N.E. Organic Farmers Assoc.); Patrice Barret, local gardener; Vivian Felten, USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service

Info. & Display Products from: Natureworks, Agway, Home Depot, City of Middletown Recycling Office and Project Green Lawn, Connecticut River Coastal Conservation District, and The Jonah Center.

For more info. call Middletown Recycling at 344-3526 or the Jonah Center at 346-6657.

Healthy lawns for a healthy community!

Project Green Lawn is a City of Middletown public awareness campaign to encourage residents and businesses to maintain healthy lawns free of chemicals that are harmful to people, pets and the environment. It is a collaborative project of the Middletown Public Works Dept., Recycling Advisory Committee and Conservation Commission, with support from the CT River Coastal Conservation District and The Jonah Center.